

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY AND PERSONAL NOTES.

DOINGS IN WASHINGTON AND OTHER CITIES.

American Delegates to Sanitary Conference
Entertain Foreigners at New Willard
Hotel—Guests Received by Senora de Aspiroz and Senora de Quesada.

The White House.

The President went for a ride yesterday afternoon with General Leonard Wood.

The Persian minister, Gen. Isaac Khan, called at the White House yesterday afternoon.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt received the uniformed nurses of the Spanish-American war at the White House this morning.

Among the Diplomats.

Mme. de Margerie, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt, at Baltimore, returned to Washington yesterday. M. de Margerie, who will act as charge d'affaires until the arrival of the new French ambassador, M. Jussier, in January, will return from New York, where he went to speed the retiring ambassador on his way tomorrow.

Charles L. E. Lardy, charge d'affaires of the Swiss legation, is out again after a long and rather tedious illness.

F. A. Pezet, the first secretary of the Peruvian legation, is confined to his bed with a severe cold. Mr. and Mrs. Pezet have taken the house 1100 Twenty-first Street.

Dr. Thomas Herran, whom rumor says has been appointed minister from Colombia in place of Senor Don Jose Concha, has taken the house 1315 N Street. In Dr. Herran's family there are two ladies, Mrs. Herran and his daughter, Miss Alice Herran. Miss Herran is a very attractive and interesting young woman, and speaks English fluently.

Cabinet Notes.

Mrs. Hay, who has returned from visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, in New York, received informally yesterday afternoon.

Miss Rebecca Knox returned to town from a two weeks' visit in New York yesterday. She will remain with her parents until after Christmas. On December 27 Miss Knox will go to Los Angeles, Cal., to visit her uncle, Dr. Thomas Knox. Early in January she will sail for Japan with Dr. and Mrs. Knox and make a leisurely tour of the Orient, returning by way of Europe next summer.

Mrs. Payne, wife of the Postmaster General, will receive informally in December and observe her first at home Wednesday, December 10. Mrs. Cameron, Mr. Payne's sister, is at present the guest of the Postmaster General and Mrs. Payne.

Mrs. Hitchcock, who is in mourning for Secretary Hitchcock's brother, will not receive this winter.

Weddings.

An Anglo-American wedding in which society has been much interested took place in London when Miss Alice Constance Ward, daughter of the late Mr. Andrew Henshaw Ward, of Boston, Mass., was married to Capt. Cyril Blackburn Tew, of the West Yorkshire Regiment.

Mr. Reginald Ward gave his sister away. The bride wore a white satin gown trimmed with pearls and silver embroidery. Captain Tew was accompanied by a number of the officers of his regiment, while a group of sergeants in uniform stood in the church porch as a guard of honor. An elaborate reception was given at the Hyde Park Hotel after the ceremony by Mr. Ward.

There were nearly a thousand invited guests. Among those who attended were the Dowager Duchess of Newcastle, Cardinal Vaughan, the Earl and Countess of Oxford, the Earl and Countess of Listowel, the Earl and Countess of Romney, the Dowager Countess Howe, the Marquis and Marchioness of Bristol, the Earl of Munster, Lord Edward Pelham Clinton, Lord Edmund Talbot, Lord and Lady Marcus Beresford, Lady Donerail, Lady Henry Gordon-Lennox, Lady Abinger, Sir Thomas Lipton, Capt. Percy Scott, Lieutenant General Moncrieff, Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvy-Haig, Mrs. Ronalds, Sir Edward and Lady Sasson, Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meyer.

One of the largest and most fashionable weddings of the season took place yesterday at noon in St. Batholomew's Church, New York, when Miss Louise Hollister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Hollister, was married to Richard H. Hollister, of Philadelphia.

The church was decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums, and a delightful musical service was rendered. Mr. Warren, the organist, playing selections from the "Meisterlanger" and "Lohengrin," with violin obligato, while the guests were assembling. The bride wore a gown of white panne velvet with a long, square train. The bodice was trimmed with a deep pointed yoke of point applique lace, which fell over the tops of her sleeves. This puffed below the elbows. Her tulle veil was fastened with orange blossoms.

Her jewels consisted of a string of pearls, the gift of her father, and a pearl and diamond crown brooch from Mr. Forrest.

The marriage of Miss May Roome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Roome, to Clinton Welling Stier, will take place at the family residence, 1477 Kenesaw Avenue northwest, this evening.

The wedding will be very quiet, and no cards have been issued.

In the Astor Gallery of the Waldorf-Astoria last evening, Miss Edna J. Saks and Leonard C. Levy were married. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Saks, who live at the Hotel Netherlands. The Rev. Joseph Silverman performed the ceremony at 6:30 o'clock. The bride wore a white satin gown, trimmed with point lace, and a point lace veil. Her chief ornament was a diamond collar, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of orchids with lilies of the valley. Miss Lilla J. Saks, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Arline Strauss, Teresa Kuhn, Ethel Price, Edna Hothstadter, Nina Price and Frances Wolf. Harry Levy assisted his brother as best man, and Walter Kremer, Morris Hermann, Horace A. Saks, W. Andrew Saks, Leo Levy, Alfred Levy, Sidney Warner, George Levy, George Sidenberg, and Joseph I. Saks were ushers. After the ceremony a dinner was served to several hundred guests in the big ballroom which was followed by a dance in the Astor Gallery.

Notes.

Mrs. Thomas Mortimer of 1828 G Street northwest, who has been visiting friends in Round Hill, Purcellville and Paconian Springs, Va., is at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bradley are the guests of Mrs. T. P. R. Shepherd of Providence.

Mrs. R. B. Bradford, wife of Admiral Bradford, is giving a tea at the Washington Club this afternoon to introduce her daughter, Rose Mary. The debutante's gown is of white crepe de chine, and her flowers La France roses. The club rooms, which are admirably adapted for entertaining, are prettily decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink. Mrs. Bradford is assisted in receiving by Miss Grace Howard of Annapolis, Miss Harriet Southland, Miss Frances Downing, Miss Elsie Seymour, Miss Margaret Sands, Miss Ida Stevens, and Miss Elizabeth Goodwin. Miss Mary Egan of Newport, is presiding at the punch bowl. Mrs. Rixey and Mrs. G. C. Reid are acting as hostesses in the dining room.

Mrs. and the Misses Bradford will receive Fridays in January and February at their home, 1522 P Street.

One of the latest additions to the society of the Capital is Mr. Henry Thaw, son of the late William Thaw, one of Pittsburgh's multi-millionaires. Mr. Thaw is about thirty-five years old, and a bachelor. He is exceedingly fine looking and generous almost to a fault. Mr. Thaw has leased for his Washington residence the Cameron house, on Lafayette Square, the house that was the home of the late Vice President Hobart, and later the residence of Senator Hanna's family, when in the city.

Mr. Thaw has a retinue of servants from Paris, who will impart an air of Old World ceremony to his household, over which his mother will preside. This young bachelor is lavish in his entertainments. Dinners that mount up into the thousands, with favors of the choicest kind, orchestral music as accompaniments, and other up-to-date features will make them excel all ordinary events. His sister, Miss Margaret Thaw, married Mr. Andrew Carnegie, a nephew of the Pennsylvania steel king.

Mrs. M. Le Roy Gough will not receive this afternoon, but will be at home at the Marlborough the following Thursdays in December.

Miss Harriet Sabine, of Williamstown, Mass., and Miss Hazel Dunning, of Cedarhurst, L. I., who were Miss Huff's schoolmates at Dobbs Ferry, are the guests of Mrs. Huff. They have come to Washington to receive with Miss Huff at her coming-out tea, which takes place on Saturday.

Miss Solie Ball is visiting Mrs. John Addison in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hunt, formerly of California, who have decided to make Washington their permanent home, have leased for the winter the house, 1905 N Street, where Mrs. Hunt will be at home.

Miss Solie Ball is visiting Mrs. John Addison in Richmond.

Miss Constance Ward Married to Capt. Cyril B. Tew in London—Weddings of Interest Celebrated in Gotham—Philadelphia Social Notes.

Saturdays throughout the season. Mr. Hunt has under construction a very handsome residence on the corner of Wyoming and Connecticut Avenues.

Miss Gertrude Ashby Bayne, third daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bayne, will make her debut this winter.

Mrs. Samuel Dieber will resume her Thursdays at home for the season, beginning today.

The Right Rev. and Mrs. Enoch M. Thompson are spending the winter at 820 Seventeenth Street. Mrs. Thompson will be at home on Tuesday afternoons.

Mrs. Richardson Clover, whose husband is the naval attaché of the American embassy in London, gave a large afternoon party for her two little girls the other day, and her home, No. 28 Park Lane, London, fairly resounded with the fun of some sixty children. The young members of the Clover family, as well as the elders, will be sadly missed when Commander Clover goes back to America in the spring.

Mrs. F. P. B. Sands has announced the engagement of her daughter, Henrietta, to Capt. Edward Anderson, U. S. A.

Miss Eugenia D. Borden will be at home Tuesdays in December after 3 o'clock, 1622 Q Street northwest.

Sanitary Delegates Received.

The American delegation to the Sanitary Conference, now being held in Washington, gave a reception last night at the New Willard in honor of their foreign colleagues. Senora de Aspiroz, wife of the Mexican ambassador, and Senora de Quesada, wife of the Cuban minister, received the guests.

Among those present were the Secretary of State, Senor de Aspiroz, the ambassador from Mexico; Senor Don Antonio Lazo Arriaga, the minister from Guatemala; Senor Don Luis Felipe Carbo, the minister from Ecuador; Mr. J. N. Leger, the minister from Haiti; J. P. de Assis-Brasil, the minister from Brazil; Senor Don Joaquin Bernardo Calvo, the minister from Costa Rica; Senor Don Luis F. Cores, the minister from Nicaragua; Senor Don Rafael Zaldívar, the minister from Salvador; Manuel Alvarez Calderon, the minister from Peru; Senor Don Fernando E. Guachalla, the minister from Bolivia; Senor Martha Garcia Merou, the minister from the Argentine Republic; Senor Don Joaquin Walker-Martinez, the minister from Chile; Senor Don Gonzalo de Quesada, the minister from Cuba; Senor Don Augusto F. Pulido, charge d'affaires from Venezuela; Senor Dr. Luis Alberto de Herrera, charge d'affaires from Uruguay; Dr. Hill, Assistant Secretary of State; Dr. Edward Moore, Dr. Edward Garcia Collar, N. Bolet Peraza, Dr. E. Liceaga, Dr. Jose Ramirez, Dr. R. Roman, Dr. James Guitierrez, Dr. Carlos Finley, John Stewart, Ernest Chernikow, Hon. John W. Foster, Surgeon General Walter Wyman, Dr. J. M. Roseman, Dr. H. L. E. Johnson, Dr. F. W. Powers, of Iowa; Dr. Rheet Goode, of Alabama; Dr. W. G. Owm, of Louisiana; Dr. Irving A. Watson, of New York.

The Maryland Society of New York City gave a reception and dance Tuesday night for its members and their friends at Sherry's. The music was furnished by Sherry's string band, and "Maryland, My Maryland," "Dixie," and "The Star-Spangled Banner" were among the selections played. The attendance was unusually large, and many prominent people were present.

The patronesses for the society were Mrs. J. Nevitt Steele, Mrs. Jennings S. Cox, Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. Archibald W. Spier, Mrs. J. Harry Hull, Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. P. A. S. Franklin, Mrs. Ernest M. Price, Mrs. E. E. Hobbs, and Mrs. Jonas D. Horner. The floor committee consisted of J. D. R. Baldwin, W. H. Baldwin, Arthur W. Pennington, Tyrrell B. Scheuter, Luther Lay Gadd, Kenneth Brown, A. H. Byrd, Robert F. Gadd, Maurice L. Edgar, Frank Barker, C. Monteth Giffin, Elijah Woodward, Russell B. Merchant, and W. W. Baldwin.

Another Droop Special.

Following complete in one volume, OUR PRICE 40c.

"Mister Dooley."
"Rip Van Winkle was a Lucky Man."
"Josephine, My Jo."
"Just kiss yourself good-by."
"Jennie Lee."
"Ching-a-ling-a-ling."
"On a Chinese Honey-moon."
"These tantalizing Eyes."
"The Message of the Rose."
"I'm Lucky."
"Nursery Rhymes."
"You'll always be the same sweet girl to me."
"We won't go home until morning."
"Tip Top Lancers."
"Back to the Woods."
"In Spiteless Town."
"Remembrance."
"After All."
"I'll tell you in the golden summertime."
"When the sun goes down."
"My Gypsy Queen."
"The Man who plays the Tambourine."
"By Wireless Telephone."
"Down at Rosie Riley's Flat."
"Oh! what a lovely dream."
"It's all right, Mayme."
"Nursery Rhymes."
"My pretty Zola Lee."
"There's Music in the Air."
"Sweet Sadie Nell heard Paderewski play."
"Mama, dear, I love you."
"The Ping Pong Girl."
"Hold Fast."
"Dressing Lou."
"Miss Green, don't be so mean."
"I want to be the Villain in the Show."
"Can you blame me for loving that Man."
"She's getting more like White Folks every day."
"The Coon with the Panama."
"Rain and a Fallin'."
"You, Love, Just you."
"When you loved me in the sweet old days."
"Embrace, my sweet Valentine."
"Sadie, my Crook Lady."

Of course, the natural impulse of any armed man, on finding himself face to face with a savage animal bent on deadly mischief, is to bring the unpleasant situation to an end by a shot, but those Americans who stay on in India for the big game shooting must not act on this impulse. Before daring to fire upon an elephant that happens to charge down upon them, they must be careful to ascertain the exact character of the beast, and whether he is a wild animal or a domestic "rogue."

It is strange that the United States and Great Britain should have consented to the selection of King Oscar as arbitrator in the Samoan difficulty, for the very fact that he is known to have concluded, if not a public treaty, at any rate a secret military convention with the Kaiser for joint action with Germany in the event of the latter becoming involved in any war with one or more of the great powers, should have prevented him from being chosen.

King Oscar is one of the most honorable and upright of men. But, with all his anxiety to act fairly, it was only natural that he and his advisers should be impelled by the relations of the Swedish crown and government with Germany to take a more favorable view of the latter's claims in the Samoan controversy than of those of the United States or Great Britain.

That is the drawback in these cases of international arbitration. Too much depends upon the personal sympathies of the arbitrator, no matter how just a man he may be; and English statesmen are to this day convinced that Great Britain would never have been called upon to pay the Alabama claims had it not been for the pronounced Anglophobia of the Swiss arbitrator, Staempfli.

MARQUESE DE FOSTENOY.

Hampshire; Arthur K. Reynolds, of Chicago; Edmund Southern, of New Orleans; J. G. Porter, of Jacksonville, Fla.; F. W. Porterfield, of Iowa. Music was furnished by the Marine Band.

Baltimore Jettings.

Miss Helen Wylie, of Baltimore, was among the guests at the tea given on Tuesday to Miss Elizabeth Worthington Treacott by her grandmother, Mrs. Charles Worthington, at her home in L Street, Washington, D. C.

The Elkridge hunters met yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Hampton gate, for the first hunt of the month. The following dates have been set for hunts to be given by the club during December: Saturday, December 6, Meredith's Ford Bridge (drag); 3 p. m.; Wednesday, December 10, Lutherville, 2:30 p. m.; Saturday, December 13, Walker and Register Avenues, 2:30 p. m.; Wednesday, December 17, Cockey's Tavern, Falls Road, 2:30 p. m.; Saturday, December 20, Rogers' Shop, York Road, 2:30 p. m.; Wednesday, December 24, Timonium, 2:30 p. m.; Saturday, December 27, Hampton Gate, 2:30 p. m.; Wednesday, December 31, Lutherville, 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. R. Stewart Latrobe and the Misses Latrobe have sent out invitations for a tea on Saturday afternoon, December 13, at their home, 14 East Eager Street.

Mrs. J. Southgate Leamon gave a dance last night at her residence, 221 West Lanvale Street, in honor of her debutante daughter, Miss Janet Leamon. The lower floor of the house was cleared for dancing and adorned with Southern smilax and tropical plants.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, Jr., have placed their residence in Green Spring Valley at the disposal of their brother, Mr. Redmond C. Stewart, and his bride, and are now occupying their town house, 111 North Charles Street.

Gay World in Gotham.

The Maryland Society of New York City gave a reception and dance Tuesday night for its members and their friends at Sherry's. The music was furnished by Sherry's string band, and "Maryland, My Maryland," "Dixie," and "The Star-Spangled Banner" were among the selections played. The attendance was unusually large, and many prominent people were present.

The patronesses for the society were Mrs. J. Nevitt Steele, Mrs. Jennings S. Cox, Mrs. Charles Steele, Mrs. Archibald W. Spier, Mrs. J. Harry Hull, Mrs. Donald McLean, Mrs. P. A. S. Franklin, Mrs. Ernest M. Price, Mrs. E. E. Hobbs, and Mrs. Jonas D. Horner. The floor committee consisted of J. D. R. Baldwin, W. H. Baldwin, Arthur W. Pennington, Tyrrell B. Scheuter, Luther Lay Gadd, Kenneth Brown, A. H. Byrd, Robert F. Gadd, Maurice L. Edgar, Frank Barker, C. Monteth Giffin, Elijah Woodward, Russell B. Merchant, and W. W. Baldwin.

One of the most fashionable weddings of the winter will be that of Miss Au-

SOCIETY!

The elegance of our carriages makes them sought after for weddings, social functions and monthly turn-outs. Perfect service and reasonable rates.

DOWNEY'S, 1622-28 L St.
Phone, Main 555.

Another Droop Special.

Following complete in one volume, OUR PRICE 40c.

"Mister Dooley."
"Rip Van Winkle was a Lucky Man."
"Josephine, My Jo."
"Just kiss yourself good-by."
"Jennie Lee."
"Ching-a-ling-a-ling."
"On a Chinese Honey-moon."
"These tantalizing Eyes."
"The Message of the Rose."
"I'm Lucky."
"Nursery Rhymes."
"You'll always be the same sweet girl to me."
"We won't go home until morning."
"Tip Top Lancers."
"Back to the Woods."
"In Spiteless Town."
"Remembrance."
"After All."
"I'll tell you in the golden summertime."
"When the sun goes down."
"My Gypsy Queen."
"The Man who plays the Tambourine."
"By Wireless Telephone."
"Down at Rosie Riley's Flat."
"Oh! what a lovely dream."
"It's all right, Mayme."
"Nursery Rhymes."
"My pretty Zola Lee."
"There's Music in the Air."
"Sweet Sadie Nell heard Paderewski play."
"Mama, dear, I love you."
"The Ping Pong Girl."
"Hold Fast."
"Dressing Lou."
"Miss Green, don't be so mean."
"I want to be the Villain in the Show."
"Can you blame me for loving that Man."
"She's getting more like White Folks every day."
"The Coon with the Panama."
"Rain and a Fallin'."
"You, Love, Just you."
"When you loved me in the sweet old days."
"Embrace, my sweet Valentine."
"Sadie, my Crook Lady."

E. F. Droop & Sons, 925 Pa. Ave.

U. S. DENTAL ASSOCIATION.

Remember the location.
Cor 7th and D Streets N.W.
Over the Hat Store, opposite the Hub.

Four New Juveniles.

Lucky Ned. By Edward S. Ellis.

A tip-top story of the leader in the village sports.

The Voyage of the Charlemagne. By W. O. Stoddard.

Tom Lane's exciting experiences in an electric ship. Better than Jules Verne. Plenty of action.

Under Scott in Mexico. By Capt. Ralph Bonehill.

Splendid story of the Mexican War. Hairbreadth escapes. Adventure. An ideal boys' story—clean, wholesome, and instructive.

Maid Sally. By Harriet A. Cheever.

Story for girls. A clever portrayal of a sweet, plucky, red-cheeked, beautiful Southern girl.

Any of the above, net, $1.00 each. By mail, $1.12.

Dana, Estes & Co., = = = Boston.

gusta Robinson and Commander Wentworth Chetwynd, of the British navy. It will take place on January 17, in Trinity Chapel.

Miss Robinson has chosen as her maid of honor Miss Lena Evans. Her bridesmaids will be Miss Katherine Dix, Miss Pauline Robinson, and Miss Katherine Beresford, daughter of Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, of England.

Miss Robinson, whose home is in Washington Square, is a daughter of the late E. Randolph Robinson, a prominent lawyer and Democrat.

Miss Hallie Ermine Rives will go from New York to Atlanta in February, where she will visit Mrs. William Swanson Peel.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Fanshawe and the Misses Fanshawe have returned from Washington, D. C., and are at their home, 13 East Forty-fifth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt have returned to New York, and are occupying their house, 459 Fifth Avenue, for the winter.

Hall Caine, with his wife and son, sailed for England yesterday on the Celtic. He had been booked on the last three steamships of the White Star Line, but each time he had to delay his home-going. Twice business prevented him from sailing, and last week his wife was ill. Mr. Caine and his family boarded the Celtic on Tuesday night, as the steamer sailed at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

Another passenger was Sir Albert K. Rollitt, M. P. He headed the delegation from the London Chamber of Commerce, which came here to attend the anniversary celebration of the New York chamber. After the celebration, Sir Albert Rollitt went to Canada, where he remained some weeks.

Miss McAllister and Miss Polly Whittier gave a large euchre party yesterday afternoon at Sherry's, for which some eighty invitations had been issued, among those present being Mrs. Stanford White, Mrs. Francis Burrall Hoffman, Mrs. Gouverneur Kortright, Mrs. Spotswood Schenck, and Miss Natalie Schenck.

The Story of Little Eva.

Two new volumes in the Famous Children of Literature Series, published by Dana, Estes & Co., of Boston.

They take up the story of these two famous and popular child characters, and in a way that appeals to every heart, portray the patience and forbearance, the angelic and winsome qualities of the two children who have charmed the reading public perhaps more than any other child characters in fiction. Either, 75c; by mail, 84 cents. Send for catalogue.

The Story of Little Nell.

The elegance of our carriages makes them sought after for weddings, social functions and monthly turn-outs. Perfect service and reasonable rates.

DOWNEY'S, 1622-28 L St.
Phone, Main 555.

KNABE PIANOS!

Repairs in new and used instruments of various makes. Sole agents for the Aeolian and Pianola.

Pianos Rented.

Wm. Knabe & Co.
1209 Pa. Ave.

U. S. DENTAL ASSOCIATION.

Remember the location.
Cor 7th and D Streets N.W.
Over the Hat Store, opposite the Hub.

Four New Juveniles.

Lucky Ned. By Edward S. Ellis.

A tip-top story of the leader in the village sports.

The Voyage of the Charlemagne. By W. O. Stoddard.

Tom Lane's exciting experiences in an electric ship. Better than Jules Verne. Plenty of action.

Under Scott in Mexico. By Capt. Ralph Bonehill.

Splendid story of the Mexican War. Hairbreadth escapes. Adventure. An ideal boys' story—clean, wholesome, and instructive.

Maid Sally. By Harriet A. Cheever.

Story for girls. A clever portrayal of a sweet, plucky, red-cheeked, beautiful Southern girl.

Any of the above, net, $1.00 each. By mail, $1.12.

Dana, Estes & Co., = = = Boston.

Lansburgh & Bro

Greatest of All
Friday Sales...

Tomorrow, the last but one of our Friday sales before Christmas, will arouse your utmost enthusiasm. No other store comes even within the shadow of the event in the matter of value-giving. Note carefully these items. They are clearly in a class by themselves.

Women's Hose at 19c.

35c and 50c Women's Fine Cotton and Lisle Hose, in fancy stripes—plain blue, red, and black, a few with white feet. There are about 40 dozen pairs left out of that colossal purchase we made last week. We will sell these at, per pair..... 19c

$1.25 Heavy Melton, 75c.

56-inch Heavy Melton Cloth, suitable for unlined skirts and jackets, blue and black only. A good value at $1.25. For this Friday, per yard..... 75c

$3.50 White Wool Blanket, $2.79.

11-4 White Wool Blanket, closely woven, well made of selected materials, finely finished, wide silk binding, all borders. For this Friday, per pair..... $2.79

45c Black Cheviot, 38c.

Black All-wool Cheviot, medium weight, for suit or skirt, 28 inches wide. A value we are proud of. For this Friday, per yard..... 38c

$2.98 to $4.48 Waist Patterns, $1.98.

Silk Embroidered French Flannel Waist Patterns, containing 3 yards each, in a variety of shades. For this Friday only—per pattern..... $1.98

49c Bureau Scarfs, 33c.

Plain Linen Hemstitched Bureau Scarfs, with open work. For this Friday only..... 33c

75c Curtain Ends, 39c.

Irish Point Curtain Ends, just when they are needed most. For this Friday..... 39c

85c All-wool Henrietta, 49c.

Silk-finished Henrietta; 45 inches wide; all wool; all colors—including cream, red, mode, navy, old rose, etc. For this Friday—per yard..... 49c

$1.00 Silks, 39c.

The vast business done the past week has left us with about 2,000 yards short lengths in Silks—most any color you may desire. There are silks in this lot that sell regularly as high as $1.00. We will sell them for this Friday at..... 39c

39c Babies' Flannelette Dresses, 25c.

Babies' Flannelette Dresses, in dainty shades of pink and blue; full wide skirt; sizes 1 to 4 years. For this Friday..... 25c

Lansburgh & Bro.

420 to 426 Seventh St.

PETER GROGAN.

Credit for all Washington.

Let Us Furnish and Carpet Your House

ON CREDIT

No Notes, No Interest.

We make, lay and line all Carpet free of cost, and do not even charge for the waste occasioned in matching figures. We are complete furnishers, including Parlor, Bed Room, and Dining Room Suites, Cookery, Pictures, Gas, Oil and Coal Ranges, etc. Payments to suit you—weekly or monthly.

PETER GROGAN,

817-819-821-823

SEVENTH ST. N. W.